

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Without diversity in the media, we the people will lose access to the truth. This is already beginning to happen. There are many subjects that the mainstream media does not address.

We cannot allow the programming of the news to be the decision of a few with special interests.
